

Free
Entry

Explore the Heart of Jacobite Country

Clan Macpherson MUSEUM
NEWTONMORE

Discover the romance, loyalty and valour of one of the last of the Jacobites; Cluny of the '45 was hunted for 9 years after Culloden.

Witness the story behind Macpherson's Lament and the broken Fiddle; a dramatic tale of a 'Robin Hood' like character celebrated in song.

Believe it or not!

Decide about the creator of the romantic Highlands, James 'Ossian' Macpherson

And much, much more!

The Clan - The Land - The History

A story of High Resolve, Patriotism and Loyalty

Interested in Highland history?
Want to discover the role of a Clan
in the Highlands?
...then this is the place for you!

Are YOU a Macpherson, Ellis, Pearson,
Clarkson, Lees, Currie, Carson, Gillespie,
Gillies, McLeish or McClair?
...then we have YOUR Clan story

Opening Hours:

1 April - 31 October 1000 - 1700
(Sun 1200-1700)

At the south end of Newtonmore Main Street in the Heart of Jacobite Country.

One mile from the popular
Highland Folk Park - come for the day to Newtonmore!

Main Street, Newtonmore, PH20 1DE
T: 01540 673332

www.clan-macpherson.org/museum

CAIRNGORMS
NATIONAL PARK AUTHORITY
ÙGH DARRAS PAIRC NAISEANTA A'
MHONAIDH RUÀIDH

THIS PROJECT HAS BEEN PART-FINANCED BY THE CAIRNGORMS NATIONAL PARK AUTHORITY, THE SCOTTISH GOVERNMENT AND THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITY
Cairngorms Local Action Group LEADER 2007 – 2013 Programme

The Clan Macpherson Museum Trust
Registered Scottish Charity No SCO20005