AGM and Social Event 2018

Saturday 27 October

It is planned to hold the AGM, followed by lunch, at Callendar House, near Falkirk.

After lunch members will be free to explore the house and grounds – weather permitting – or, if they wish, visit the Kelpies which are nearby.

More information will be published in a flyer in September

If you don't know the house, have a look at www.falkirkcommunitytrust.org/venues/callendar-house, an extract from which appears below

Callendar House dates from the 14th century. It is set in the nationally-important historic designed landscape of Callendar Park, which also contains a section of the Antonine Wall World Heritage Site.

The House's permanent displays are The Story of Callendar House, a history covering the 11th to the 19th centuries, The Antonine Wall, Rome's Northern Frontier, and Falkirk: Crucible of Revolution 1750-1850, tells how the local area was transformed during the first century of the industrial era.

In the restored 1825 Kitchen, costumed interpreters create an exciting interactive experience with samples of early-19th century food providing added taste to stories of working life in a large household.

The Park Gallery offers a changing programme of contemporary visual art exhibitions, while different aspects of cultural heritage are explored in the 2nd Floor Galleries exhibition space.

Falkirk Archives are based here with the search room occupying the House's Victorian library.
